International Entrepreneurs Association is accepting applications for the exclusive position of Executive Director in each country.

● Among the benefits, of the Executive Directors position is four levels of income, direct exposure to international markets, exports, imports and local, regional and international commercial opportunity. The Executive Director will also provide local and regional hands on, training and mentoring to new IEA members to help on an individual basis with the development of new ideas, products, and, concepts for business and networking opportunities. This is not a "JOB" it is an opportunity!

HAWAII, USA.

November 10th 2017. A "call in" at a global scale to "qualified" opportunity seekers is the call that makes the International Entrepreneurs Association (IEA) www.IEA777.com whose main goal is to create a global entrepreneurs network to encourage imports,exports,new developments,trainings and capacities to to engage at the local grass roots level to teach and train new entrepreneurs.

The appointed Executive directors will enjoy prestige and recognition in the local and international market, training opportunities, media exposure, relations with chambers of commerce, civil organizations, academia, international conferences and access to exclusive content and webinars with famous speakers and experts from all over the world are just some of the benefits offered to the appointed Executive Directors.

"As an entrepreneur with many years of experience I have made a thorough study of the entrepreneurial market and its commercial potential. With many billions in commercial trade and an estimated 700 million entrepreneurs globally is the reason I created the IEA," said David Selley, founder and CEO of the International Entrepreneurs Association. "The goal is to form an international network of licensed and highly qualified Executive Directors with a proven entrepreneurial background. The Executive Directors are frequently in a learning process, and exposed to new business opportunities where they can run out their full potential and at the same time help importers, exporters, existing and new businesses in their licensed country plus help “new” entrepreneurs realize their full potential

Initially, the IEA is developing a schedule of activities in North America, South America, Europe and Asia with a plan to expand it to 70 other countries and 50 major cities via an International book signing, and public relations tour, about entrepreneurialism!

For those people who are interested in the Executive Directors position in each specific area (country) an application must be submitted. The licensing process and the applicants REAL qualifications such as practical entrepreneurial experience, education and personal background will be reviewed by the executive board of directors,
